

KALA-FM

SCHOLARSHIP

for incoming/transfer students

ABOUT THE KALA SCHOLARSHIP

Pay for college while taking your marketing, public speaking or journalism skills to the next level.

KALA-FM is offering two (2) $3,000 scholarships to incoming/transfer St. Ambrose University students.

INTERESTED IN APPLYING?

Email KALA@sau.edu

To qualify for the scholarship you must:

- have a 3.0 GPA (or the equivalent of)
- enroll in full-time classes at SAU for the 2021-22 school year
- work eight (8) hours per week for KALA-FM during Fall 2021 and Spring 2022 semesters
- demonstrate the ability to fulfill duties in one of the following three (3) areas:
 - > Marketing/Communications
 - > On Air
 - > Production/Promotions

Marketing/Communications

- Create and distribute a monthly newsletter with local music events, special programming on KALA-FM, and a feature on an individual with ties to KALA-FM
- Develop and implement a marketing plan for KALA-FM in the Quad Cities community, including but not limited to: yard signs; scheduling and planning events; maintaining relationships with local music partners such as RME and Mississippi Valley Blues Society; and identify opportunities for marketing materials such as, posters, brochures, Snapchat filters, etc.
- Coordinate with the KALA Production Specialist to implement marketing strategies across station social media

On Air

- Create, produce, and host a weekly two-hour live show on KALA-FM
- Host show remotely once a month at an on-campus location
- Coordinate with the KALA Operations Manager to voice any promos or PSAs that need to be recorded
- Create promotional materials for your show
- Create and maintain social media accounts to promote your show and interact with your audience

Production/Promotions

- Produce promotional videos for social media platforms to promote KALA-FM as well as its programming
- Work with the Communications and Marketing office to create promotional materials following university brand guidelines to increase awareness about station-run or sponsored events and any marketing campaigns, including but not limited to: videos, posters, on-air promos, brochures, Snapchat filters, etc.
- Assist with social media as needed/directed by the KALA Production Specialist
- Follow university brand guidelines and work with the Communications and Marketing office to develop KALA-FM branding